

Their Land, Their Legacy Workshop

October 19, 2018

9:00 – 3:00 p.m.

NYS Fairgrounds, Art and Home Center, Somerset Room
581 State Fair Blvd., Syracuse, New York 13209

---

AGENDA

- 9:00 Arrive and check-in; refreshments available
- 9:15 Introductions and overview
- 9:30 Making the Case for Keeping Forests as Forests
Overview of situation
Legacy Planning Nuts and Bolts
What is legacy planning and why do it?
What do we know about how landowners make decisions?
Discussion: How can foresters and loggers use this information?
- 10:00- The Role of Professionals in Landowner Legacy Planning (Kim Rothman, Partner, Miller and Mayer Attorneys at Law, LLP)
Stories from the field
How professionals support the legacy planning process
Case examples of working with landowners on legacy
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Panel Discussion with Landowners
3 Landowners share their stories of legacy planning
- 2:00 Helping landowners consider the future of their forest with Legacy Outreach Resources
Outreach resources to support keeping forests as forests
Outreach Resources: Their Land, Their Legacy and Your Land, Your Legacy Publications
Outreach Resources: Videos
Outreach Resources: Love Your Land, Make a Plan Brochure
Outreach Resources: Forest Story Cards
Outreach Resources: Conversation Starters
Outreach Resources: NY Legacy Planning Website
Activity: Practice using resources and starting conversations
- 2:30 Creating and initiating opportunities for successful engagement with landowners about legacy planning
Activity: Create a plan for using resources and supporting landowners in informed decision-making
- 3:00 Closing and evaluation

